

skin analysis

With more than thirty years experience in the skin-care industry, we can accurately analyze your skin to determine your skin type and skin condition, enabling us to recommend the most effective skin-care products and prescribe a custom-tailored care regimen that fits your skin profile and lifestyle.

Our European training and methodology aims to produce long-term and lasting results using products formulated with effective botanical, marine and biological ingredients. Our approach is non-invasive, activating the skin's natural ability to heal itself.

Skin Analysis sessions may be scheduled in advance or performed on a walk-in basis depending on availability. Please allow 20-40 minutes for your session.

Initial Skin Analysis is complimentary.
Each additional session is $85*

Cranberry & Caviar Facial

Land Meets Sea in this Anti-Aging,
Forming and Regenerating Treatment

Extract of cranberry possesses extraordinary potency in the fight against free radicals and assists the skin in retaining moisture and combating impurities. Caviar activates your skin's natural defenses, strengthening and hydrating while forming your skin. The deepest layers of your skin will begin to regenerate, slowing the aging process. You will notice an immediate improvement in the appearance and feel of your skin. This spa treatment includes hand and foot massage.

Sensitive & Rosacea Treatment

pH-Balancing, Nourishing and Calming Skin Treatment

Rosacea is a common but poorly understood disorder of the facial skin whose cause is unknown. However, there are key ingredients and methods that can have a dramatic effect on improving this skin condition. In our customized treatment we use special methods and products to reduce redness, improve the skin's texture, balance your skin's pH level and activate the natural healing ability of the dermis. This spa treatment will leave your skin looking healthy and more resilient to environmental conditions (heat, cold, sun and wind).
